

Social and Personal.

THE last week in July finds society with plans well matured for various summer outings, and while one chooses a stay at the shore, with the daily dip in the ocean as the chief event in a day's pleasure, another tries the "simple life" with a camping party on the banks of a mountain stream, or accepts an invitation to join a group of friends in a country house party.

Whichever alternative, vacation time is here; and the pleasures of anticipation are being surpassed by active realization.

In Virginia the open-air horse shows during the summer months have taken a prominent place in the social life of the day, and society is planning with unusual enthusiasm for the Orange and Charlottesville shows. A number of Richmond people will attend them both.

Miss Anne Keith Royall will leave next week to ride in the hunt teams at both the Orange and Charlottesville shows, chaperoned during her stay in Orange by Mrs. Robert Whitehurst, of Richmond.

While at Charlottesville, Miss Royall will visit her school friend, Miss Louie Antrim, in her beautiful home near the University of Virginia, and participate in the many horse show gaieties.

Later she will be a guest in a house party to be given during August by Miss Grace Jones in her Danville home.

At "Virginia Manor," among the Richmond people, owners of country places, who are entertaining quite lavishly now, is George Stevens, of the Virginia Military Institute, who, with a party of young friends, is at his father's home, "Virginia Manor," near Natural Bridge.

Mr. Stevens' guests include Miss Maude Caskie and Miss Annie Gilliam, Lynchburg; Tom Moulton, Miss Mary Moulton, and James Anderson, of Lynchburg; Bernard Jones, Tom Poague, of Lexington, Va.; Miss Tallaferrero, of Baltimore; Miss Dalton, of North Carolina, and Mr. Tallaferrero, who was Mr. Stevens' room-mate at V. M. I.

Miss Mary Ingram, and Miss Elsie Ingram, with Miss Louise Robinson, whom they have been visiting at her home in Ghent, left yesterday for Rockbridge county to join Mr. Stevens' party.

Miss Ingram and Miss Crump divide honors with other Richmond girls in their popularity in Norfolk society, and they have been having a charming time during their visit there with Miss Robinson.

With their hostess they attended the Saturday evening hop at the Chamberlain Hotel last week, chaperoned by Admiral and Mrs. Tausig, Lieutenant and Mrs. Summers, Mr. and Mrs. Southgate Taylor, Lieutenant and Mrs. Mack and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carroll.

Others dancing were Miss Marion Graves, Miss Fannie Etheridge, Miss Marion Simmons, Miss Kelly, Miss Hemlinway, Miss Gwen Morgan, Miss Margaret Dalton, of Winston-Salem; Miss Hitt, Miss Louise Jones, Miss Josephine Wrenn; Messrs. Wrenn, Bain, Heth Hume, Jack Nash, Robert Wilson, Eugene Payne, Fitz Doyle, Littlejohn, Tazewell, Van Hatten, Conrad Hutchinson, John Waldrop, Hammond Johnson, Arthur King, Henry Wainwright, Mr. George, Mr. Myers,

Cures Heat-Constipation FREE

At this time of the year city and county physicians publish their annual letters warning the public to beware of unripe or over-ripe fruit; germ-laden food and water, etc. But of more importance still is to warn people to keep their bowels well open these hot days, and this applies to young and old, but especially to the extremes of ages. To be constipated is to be in danger of germ-infection. Also, it thickens and over-heats the blood, producing sick-headache, loss of appetite, etc. Instead of trying to get bowel movement by over-eating yourself with fruit (which is more likely to produce diarrhea than cure the constipation) use DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN once or twice a week before retiring. It will clean out the bowels, tone the stomach and put the blood in good order. This remedy is a vast improvement over salts and purgative waters, tablets, pills, etc., for these are only temporary expedients. DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN is permanent in its effect and contains ingredients that tone and strengthen the body. Its pleasant taste and freedom from gripping recommends it to children and old people, who especially need a gentle laxative. Any druggist will sell you a bottle for only 50 cents or $1.00 and guarantee results.

High-Jumper Killed

Famous Horse Shot After Injuring His Shoulder in Jumping.

GREAT BARRINGTON, MASS., July 20.—Hetherbloom, the world's champion jumping horse, for which Howard Willetts, of Bridport, Conn., and New Marlboro, Mass., recently refused an offer of $20,000, jumped over a fence and received injuries of such a character that he had to be shot.

Besides being offered $20,000 by the proprietors of Barnum's Circus, Mr. Willetts received a flattering offer from an English gentleman this year who desired to enter the horse in the international jumping class at the Olympic Show.

Heatherbloom was placed in an enclosure six feet six inches high when brought to New Marlboro some time ago. The horse's jumping habits got the better of his day and he jumped the fence. Later the great jumper was inclosed where there was a higher fence, and in going over this injured a shoulder. It then being necessary to kill the valuable animal.

His official record is seven feet ten and a half inches, though he has jumped eight feet three inches on Mr. Willetts' place at White Plains. In all of his best jumps and when being "shown" Richard Donnelly was his rider.

MOB WENT BACK WITH SAME ROPE

Let Negro Off Once, but Decided After All to Lynch Him.

PADUCAH, KY., July 20.—A mob took Albert Lawson, the negro who shot Sheriff R. M. Compton, at Paris, Tenn., Sunday, from the Paris jail to-night and hanged him to a mulberry tree, a few yards from the prison.

An attempt was made early this afternoon to lynch the negro. He was carried to the courthouse yard, where a rope was placed around his neck, but while the prisoners pleaded, more conservative men and the county officials appeared on the scene and begged the mob to allow the law to take its course. Thereupon Lawson was again locked up.

Later Sheriff Compton issued a poster over his own signature, requesting the people to let the law take its course, stating that he was much better.

To-night a large mob, with the rope used earlier in the afternoon, went to the little prison, battered down the door, and lynched Lawson.

The man was captured early to-day under a negro's house in Paris. He had had but one meal since the shooting.

There is doubt as to his being the right man. Mrs. Brown, who was attacked in the back yard of her home, is suffering considerably from the shock, but her condition late to-night is not considered critical.

FISHERMEN SWEEP TO SEA BY TIDE

Exhausted by Efforts to Assist Themselves, They Are Finally Rescued.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NOFOLEK, July 20.—News reached the city to-day of the rescue of three boatmen from a trip to sea in an open yawl on Sunday afternoon in the Roads between Cape Henry and Cape Charles, by Captain James Parkerson, a fisherman, of Lynnhaven.

Sunday afternoon a party of three, consisting of Meyer Miller, D. E. Winslow and Joe McDonnell, went fishing off Willoughby Spit. In some way they lost one of their oars, and were unable to make shore against the strong tide. Rapidly they were swept toward the ocean, borne on the outgoing tide. The men stripped, and going overboard, tried to swim with the boat to shore. In this they failed, after being in the water for an hour. They were barely able to get back into the boat.

It was nearly dark when their signals of distress were seen by those at the fishery between Cape Henry and Cape Charles, and a gasoline launch was sent to their rescue.

He stabbed himself four times in the side with a pair of rusty shears.

He was hurried to a hospital, where it was said that the heart was punctured, and the physicians decided to operate immediately. It is not considered likely that he will survive the shock.

Asked why he had attempted to take his life, the old man replied, the police said, "I am old and sick. They want to send me back to Italy. I don't want to go. When I die I want to die here in free America, where I came long ago to make my home."
